Pre-Conference Events: Tuesday, October 9 and Wednesday, October 10

Full Conference: Thursday, October 11 to Saturday, October 13

Your invitation from the Presidents of CARO and COMP

First integrated Annual Scientific Meeting adds value for Sponsors

In previous years you have generously supported both CARO and COMP conferences. This year we are pleased to invite you to sponsor and/or exhibit at the first integrated annual scientific meeting of the Canadian Association of Radiation Oncology and the Canadian Organization of Medical Physicists. The joint and synergistic nature of this conference makes it unique, and the largest Canadian radiation oncology national event of its kind, offering unprecedented professional development, learning and networking opportunities for COMP and CARO members.

Your involvement as an industry sponsor or exhibitor makes these annual meetings possible. The conference is funded largely through your greatly appreciated, unrestricted educational grants. We anticipate this joint meeting to attract more than 600 radiation oncologists and residents, medical physicists and physics residents, radiation therapy technologists, dosimetrists, scientists, allied health care professionals and industry representatives from Canada's leading cancer care and research centres, hospitals and businesses.

The integrated meeting in Toronto from October 9–13, 2007 provides our corporate partners with the value-added benefit of reaching all CARO and COMP delegates together for the first time since both organizations were founded. For sponsors/exhibitors who usually participate in both meetings there are significant savings. For sponsors/exhibitors who normally participate in one meeting only, we have kept the sponsorship and exhibit fees at very reasonable levels, providing you access to a significantly expanded audience.

Our theme this year is Image Guided and Adaptive Radiation Therapy. This contemporary theme creates the framework for exploration of how Canadian radiation oncology and medical physics continue to bring state of the art imaging and treatment developments to the world.

Please take a few moments now to review our outstanding offerings for our 2007 sponsors and exhibitors – detailed in this package. Be the first to confirm your firm's sponsorship to insure your choice of the various unique sponsorship opportunities and exhibit locations.

Dr. Tom Pickles, President, CARO

Dr. Stephen Pistorius, Chair, COMP

Canadian Association of Radiation Oncology (www.caro-acro.ca)

The Canadian Association of Radiation Oncology, established in 1985 and incorporated in 1988, partners with other disciplines in seeking to improve the outcomes for cancer patients, and provides a consultative authority to oncology related agencies, academic institutions and to the public in all matters pertaining to radiotherapy and oncology in Canada.

CARO promotes the interests of radiation oncology in Canada and represents the specialty to governments, the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and other national and international societies.

In the 21 years since CARO was founded, membership has grown to 610 members, including radiation oncologists, radiation oncology residents, physicists, radiation therapists, radio-biologists and others involved in radiation therapy sciences.

Canadian Organization of Medical Physicists (www.medphys.ca)

The Canadian Organization of Medical Physicists, founded in 1989, is the main professional body for medical physicists practicing in Canada. The membership of 520 is composed of graduate students in medical physics programs, post-doctoral fellows, as well as professional physicists, scientists and academics located at universities, hospitals, cancer centres and government research facilities such as the National Research Council. Every member has an educational or professional background in physics or engineering as it applies to medicine.

The joint annual scientific meeting committee has designed the program to include two full days of pre-conference events, a diverse and dynamic group of speakers, workshops, paper presentations and symposia related to the theme, Image Guided and Adaptive Radiation Therapy. The theme gives us the opportunity to explore ground breaking developments in cancer control in medical physics and radiation oncology.

To enhance inter-professional learning opportunities, we have planned daily joint sessions between Medical Physics and Radiation Oncology, as well as break out sessions for topics unique to each group.

The CARO pre-conference Symposium will relate to MRI, and is organized by Dr. Cynthia Ménard, Assistant Professor, Department of Radiation Oncology, University of Toronto.

The CARO Lecture will feature Dr. David Jaffray, Head, Department of Physics, Princess Margaret Hospital; and the CARO Gordon Richards Lecture will feature Dr. Glenn Bauman, Chair of Oncology, University of Western Ontario, and Director of Research, London Regional Cancer Program.

On Thursday, the Adaptive Therapy Symposium is a joint effort of CCPM (Canadian College of Physicists in Medicine) and CARO. The Public Lecture featuring Dr. Jean-Philippe Pignol, Radiation Oncologist, Department of Radiation Oncology, Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, the People's Choice, the Resident/Young Investigators Competition, the Poster Discussion Sessions and Reception are all joint presentations of both CARO and COMP.

COMP will present a lifetime achievement award at its Gold Medal Presentation.

Conference Welcome Reception – Thursday, October 11th 7:00 pm

A social highlight of our meetings since 1986, the welcome reception provides an opportunity for all participants to connect with their national and international colleagues who have come to Toronto for the meeting, and to relax and enjoy themselves prior to the start of the conference. This year's venue is The Carlu, located on the seventh floor of College Park. This was considered one of the grandest concert halls in Canada when it opened in 1931. Today it is considered to be one of the best surviving examples of Art Moderne in the world (it was created by Jacques Carlu).

Investment: $20,000

Wine & Cheese Poster Viewing Reception – Friday, October 12th 5:30 pm

We launched this academic/social event in 2006 in Calgary to great reviews. It was a popular, well attended event which allowed people to wander through the exhibit hall and review and discuss the poster material while enjoying some fine wine and appetizer.

Investment: $15,000

In addition to invited scientific presentations, the program will include educational lectures on MRI physics, and clinical focus workshops reviewing strategies to the judicious integration MRI in radiation oncology.

Each sponsor of the MRI Session will contribute significantly towards the success of this unique pre-conference symposium.

Investment: $10,000
